

Employment Challenges in an Era of Asian Regional Integration: Case Studies in Inter-Cultural Management, Organization, and Work Values

Session 1: Inter-cultural Management and Organization

(15:00–16:20 *Presentation 20
minutes×2, Open to audience 40
minutes)

“The transfer and adaptation of Japanese management practices
in a different cultural context:
Case study of Technocentre
(TNC), Shenzhen region of China”

Zhaka Pranvera

(PhD Candidate, Graduate School of Economics, Waseda University)

“Integrating Regionalism and Internationalism through Private English Language Education in Japan:
Essentializing Boundaries among Eikaiwa Workers”

Dr. Andrew MacNaughton
(The University of Hong Kong)

Commentator: Prof. Shigeto

Date: October
17th (Friday),
2008
15:00–18:00

雇用問題からの挑戦状
グローバル化する世界の中でアジア地域統合を考える

Session 2: Organization and Work Values

(16:30–17:50 *Presentation 20
minutes×2, Open to audience 40
minutes)

“Work values of the new generation of managers in Japan,
Korea, and China”

Dr. Fabian Jinte Froese

(Assistant Professor, Korea University)

“Regional Integration from Below:
The Status Quo of Labor Issues and Union Cooperation between Japan and Korea”

Shinji Kojima

(PhD Candidate, University of Hawaii at Manoa)

Commentator: Prof. Glenda S.
Roberts

Closing Remarks: Stephen R.

Organized by:
Waseda University Doctorial Student
Network

Supported by:
Global Institute for Asian Regional Integration (GIARI) and Graduate School of Asia Pacific Studies (GSAPS)