

Dr. In-Jin Yoon is a professor of the Department of Sociology, Korea University and the head of the Brain Korea 21 Project Group for Conflict Society. He graduated from the Department of Sociology, Korea University and received his MA degree and Ph. D. from the University of Chicago. He was an assistant professor in the Asian American Studies Department of the University of California, Santa Barbara before he became an assistant professor of sociology at Korea University. His major publications include On My Own: Korean Businesses and Race Relations in America, Korean Diaspora, and Free North Koreans in South Korea. His research interests include minority, social psychology, and multiculturalism.