

Peace in Korea and Northeast Asia

Prof. Kim Ki-Jung

(Dept. of Political Science, Yonsei University)

Professor Kim Ki-Jung got Ph.D. in Political Science, University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT, 1989.

Major Publications are below:

Northeast Asian Regional Security Order and Strategic Calculus on the Taiwan Straits (Seoul: Yonsei University Press, 2003); Fifty Years After the Korean Conflict (Seoul: The Korean Association of International Studies, 2001). (co-edit with Dongsung Kim); The Historical Pattern of US Involvement in East Asia and the Studies of Korean-US Relations in the Early 20th Century. (Seoul: Moonhakhwa JisungSa, 2003). (in Korean); "The United States and the East Asian Regional Order" in The United States and Northeast Asia, G. John Ikenberry and Chung-in Moon, eds. (Rowman and Littlefield, 2008) (a book chapter); "The War and US-Korean Relations" David Wolff, et al., eds., The Russo-Japanese War in Global Perspective (Brill, 2007), pp. 467-90.; "Establishing Peace on the Korean Peninsula" Korea Observer 36:3 (Autumn 2005), pp. 489-510.

Date: January 18 (Tue.), 10:30-12:00

Venue: Waseda University Building No. 19, Room 710

Language: English (No Translation)

Pre-registration is not required / Admission Free

Jointly sponsored by

早稲田大学アジア研究機構
WASEDA University
Organization for Asian Studies

アジア地域統合のための世界的人材育成拠点

